

Health and Social Care Professions Research Conference

'DELIVERING HEALTHY IRELAND: IMPACT OF HSCP RESEARCH & PRACTICE'

Thursday 16th April '15 Trinity College Dublin School of Nursing & Midwifery D'Olier St.
Dublin

Time	Event
8.30-9.55	Registration
10.00- 10.15	Welcome Address Mr. Tony O’Brien, Director General of the HSE
10.15-10.50	Keynote speaker Professor Donal O’Shea, Consultant Endocrinologist, St Vincent’s Hospital
10.50-11.15	Coffee and viewing of posters
	Research Presentations – IMPACT of HSCP RESEARCH & PRACTICE
11.15-12.15	Upper Lecture Theatre 2.57 Empowering people and communities for a Healthy Ireland A Chair	Seminar Room 2.51 Empowering people and communities for a Healthy Ireland B Chair	Seminar Room 1.24 Monitoring, improving and evaluation of healthcare delivery A Chair	Seminar Room 1.26 Monitoring, improving and evaluation of healthcare delivery B Chair	Seminar Room 1.29 Better use of people and resources via interdisciplinary collaboration Chair
11.15-11.30	‘Innovative ways of listening to children’s perspectives: Sharing the experience of using narrative inquiry with children with speech and language impairments’ Rena Lyons Discipline of Speech and Language Therapy, NUI Galway	Impact of ethnic diversity on African patient management in radiotherapy departments’ Claire McBride Discipline of Radiation Therapy, Trinity College Dublin	‘Relationships and early intervention practice’ Clare Carroll Lecturer, Discipline of Speech & Language Therapy , School of Health Sciences , Áras Moyola, NUI Galway	‘Bon Appetite: Improving the mealtime experience of residents in long-term mental health units through education and training’ Collette Gill Senior Speech and Language Therapist, St. Vincent’s University Hospital, Elm Park, Dublin 4.	‘Examination of primary care psychological services in Laois and Offaly: A survey of the needs of GPs, service managers, and primary care psychologists’. Mark Corcoran Psychology Department, HSE Area Office, Tullamore, Co Offaly
11.30-11.45	‘C.H.A.T.: Piloting and evaluating the effectiveness of a communication hub for people with aphasia’ Aine Lawlor Speech & Language Therapist HSE Community Speech and Language Therapy	Changing how we talk with patients: an investigation of the implementation of Motivational Interviewing into practice by physiotherapists. Niall McCrane Discipline of Physiotherapy, School of Medicine, Trinity College Dublin	‘Evaluation of a 9 week group-based Acceptance and Commitment therapy programme for people with chronic pain: a pilot study’ Máire-Brid Casey Senior Physiotherapist Mater Misericordiae University Hospital	‘In search of the best assay for albumin in patients with end stage renal disease (ESRD)’ Barbara Gillman Clinical Specialist Renal Dietitian Mater Misericordiae University Hospital	‘Medical scientists and allied health professionals participation in multidisciplinary team meetings’ Dr. Bridget Kane PhD Centre for Health Policy and Management Trinity College, 3/4, Foster Place, Dublin 2
11.45-12.00	‘Online mindfulness vs progressive muscle relaxation vs a combination of both as a treatment of migraine- Empowering clients in their choice of treatment to control their chronic headache’ Jonathan Egan Psychologist Mater Misericordiae University Hospital	Promoting health-seeking: the accessibility, acceptability and appropriateness of Jigsaw Galway, a Primary Care Youth Mental Health Service Sarah Simkin Jigsaw Galway, Fairgreen Road, Galway City	‘Can APSI provide an accessible and effective primary care psychological service?’ Patrick McHugh Psychologist HSE Area Office Arden Road Tullamore	‘The implementation of a LEAN nutrition assessment process (LNAP) template’ Orla Haughey Department of Clinical Nutrition St James’s Hospital Dublin 8	‘The role of social work in primary care in Ireland’ Patrice Reilly HSE Primary Care Social Worker, Killinarden Health Centre, Tallaght, Dublin 24.
12.00-12.15	‘Jigsaw: Empowering young people to develop the skills, self-confidence and resilience to cope with mental health challenges’ Lynsey O’Keefe Psychologist Headstrong: The National Centre for Youth Mental Health.	‘Using ‘Communication Ramps’ in research to improve strength of results and empower clients – a modified client experience survey as an example’ Julie Scott Speech and Language Therapy The Royal Hospital Donnybrook	‘To feed or not to feed: profiling dysphagia management in nursing homes’ Mareta Mullane Speech & Language Therapist HSE Community Speech and Language Therapy	‘A feasibility study investigating a physiotherapy motivational interviewing programme to reduce cardiometabolic risk in schizophrenia and bipolar disorder’ Alice Waugh Physiotherapy Department, St. James’s Hospital, Dublin 8	Adult integrated audiology service: improving the care pathway for adults requiring hearing aid management Roulla Katiri Audiology Department, Mater Misericordiae University Hospital, North Circular Road, Dublin
12.30-1.00	Leo Varadkar TD, Minister for Health (Speaking 10-15 mins) Launch of research methodology guidebook – 2 nd edition
1.00 -14.15	Lunch
14.15 -15.00	Viewing of posters
15.00-15.30	Keynote speaker Mr John Hennessy ,National Director of Primary Care HSE
	Parallel Workshops
15.30– 16.30	How to apply for research funding Upper Lecture Theatre 2.57 Dr. Molly Byrne	How to conduct qualitative research in health & social care settings Seminar Room 0.55 Mandy Lee Assistant Professor & Lecturer	How to practice ethically sound research Seminar Room 1.24 Dr. Brian McGuire School of Psychology	How to write for publication Seminar Room 1.26 Michelle Leech / Laura Mullaney / Mary Coffey Discipline of Nursing	How to conduct action research Seminar Room 1.29 Prof Geralyn Hynes School of Nursing	Using audio diaries and critical incident technique in health & social care research Seminar Room 2.51 Dr Niamh Flanagan School of Applied Social

	School of Psychology National University of Ireland Galway	Health Policy & Management Trinity College Dublin	National University of Ireland Galway	Therapy, University College Dublin / Trinity College Dublin	Trinity College Dublin	Science University College Dublin
16.30– 17.00	Final comments & wrap-up Dr. Michael Byrne

CONFIDENTIAL